CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

These matters were initiated by signed, sworn, and notarized complaints by Tyler Erdman. The Commission found reason to believe that Adam H. Victor and TransGas Development Systems, LLC ("Respondents") violated 52 U.S.C. §§ 30116(a) and 30122 by making excessive contributions and contributions in the name of another.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondents, having participated in informal methods of conciliation, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree as follows:

- I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondents and the subject matter of this proceeding, and this agreement has the effect of an agreement entered pursuant to 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(A)(i).
- II. Respondents have had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.
  - III. Respondent enters voluntarily into this agreement with the Commission.
  - IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:
- 1. Adam H. Victor is the sole member of TransGas Development Systems,

  LLC ("TGDS"), a single-member LLC that is not treated as a corporation by the Internal Revenue Service.

- 2. On March 29, 2011, Victor contributed the maximum allowable amount to Manchin for West Virginia ("Manchin Committee") for both the 2012 Primary and General Elections, that is, $2,500 per election. The Manchin Committee is the principal campaign committee of Joe Manchin.
- 3. Victor instructed Randall Harris, a business associate, to contribute $2,500 to the Manchin Committee, with the express understanding that Victor would reimburse him for making that contribution. Harris wrote a $2,500 personal check payable to the Manchin Committee, which disclosed receiving the contribution on December 30, 2011. At Victor's direction, Harris's contribution to the Manchin Committee was reimbursed by a $2,500 check payable to Harris, drawn on the bank account of TGDS and dated December 29, 2011.
- 4. Around the time of the November 11, 2011, fundraising event in New York City supporting then-Presidential candidate Herman Cain, Victor contributed the maximum allowable amount of $2,500 to Friends of Herman Cain, Inc. ("Cain Committee") for the 2012 Republican Primary Election. The Cain Committee is the principal campaign committee of Herman Cain. The Cain Committee disclosed its receipt of this contribution on January 17, 2012.
- 5. Around the time of the November 11, 2011, Herman Cain fundraiser, Victor instructed his employee Marta Dani to contribute $2,500 to the Cain Committee with the express understanding that Victor would reimburse her for making the contribution. Dani wrote a $2,500 personal check payable to the Cain Committee, which disclosed receiving the contribution on November 9, 2011. At Victor's direction, Dani's contribution to the Cain Committee was reimbursed by a $5,000 check payable to Dani, drawn on the bank account of TGDS and dated on or about November 9, 2011.

- 6. Around the time of the November 11, 2011, Herman Cain fundraiser, Victor instructed his employee Nana Yoshioka to contribute $2,500 to the Cain Committee with the express understanding that Victor would reimburse her for making the contribution.

At Victor's direction, Yoshioka's contribution to the Cain Committee was reimbursed by a $2,500 check payable to Yoshioka, drawn on the bank account of TGDS and dated November 9, 2011.

After Victor presented the five checks to the Cain Committee, a representative of that committee subsequently sought clarification as to the identity of the five contributors. Victor had a representative inform the Cain Committee that the contributors were his wife and his four children, and each contribution was in the amount of $2,500. Victor's wife and four children did not provide the funds to make these contributions. The Cain Committee disclosed the receipt of these contributions in the names of Victor's wife and four children on January 17, 2012.
